

MAIXNER PAIN RESEARCH SYMPOSIUM

DECEMBER 2, 2026
9:30 AM – 6:00 PM

REGISTER TODAY!

Faculty: $100

Trainees: $25

Students: $25

The 4th Annual Maixner Pain Research Symposium, in honor of the late Dr. William "Bill" Maixner, is co-hosted this year by the Comparative Pain Research and Education Center at NC State University and the Department of Anesthesiology at Duke University.

This event brings together pain researchers and clinicians from North Carolina academic hubs, including Duke University, UNC-Chapel Hill, NC State University, and Wake Forest University, to 1) share exciting new advances in pain research and pain management, 2) stimulate organic collaborative opportunities, and 3) promote professional development of early career students and trainees.

CORE THEMES:

"Intersection of Pain, Stress and Emotion" | "Pain Across the Life Span"

McKimmon Conference and Training Center
1101 Gorman Street
Raleigh, NC 27606

 Duke Anesthesiology
Duke University School of Medicine

Wake Forest University
School of Medicine

NC STATE UNIVERSITY

College of Veterinary Medicine

Abstracts are due on Friday, October 16th at 11:00pm EST.

REGISTER: <https://ncsucvmce.eventsair.com/ce-master/maixner>